U. S. THREAT OF RAIL MANAGEMENT; RICHMOND VOTE PLACED AT 4,690

PROBLEMS OF TRAFFIC UP TO R. R. OWNERS

Washington, Aug. 4.—The railroads must solve the transportation problems for themselves or the government will operate those roads which fail to do so, under receiverships.

Both the railroads and the unions have agreed to abide by any decision of the Railroad Labor Board at Chicago.

As a final effort the Labor Board of its own accord may summon carriers and union officials before it and render a decision on the troublesome seniority question that both parties are bound by their own promise to accept.

Just now the government will keep hands off and give the railroads an opportunity to demonstrate their ability to function.

This decision of President Harding's cabinet, as made public by the chief executive at his regular conference with newspapermen following the Cabinet meeting today.

Mercantile Trust Company Merge With First National Bank

Announcement authorized yesterday by President Charles J. Crary, of the First National Bank and the Richmond Savings Bank that those two institutions are merging with the Mercantile Trust Company, of San Francisco, is one of the most important in the financial history of Richmond.

Good Augury for City

The action of the Mercantile Trust Company is a good augury for Richmond. It is indicative that this city's strategic position, industrially and as a port, are recognized in San Francisco, the financial capital of the West

The entry of the Mercantile Trust Company into the local field will insure to the people of this city an institution of far greater service to meet their growing needs.

In addition to the present accommodations for commercial, savings and safe deposit business, the new branch of the Mercantile Trust Company will be able to give to the people of Richmond the services of a trust department and of a bond and securities department as well as many other special services.

Personnel Retained Here

The officers and directors who have so ably conducted the First National Bank and the Richmond Savings Bank will be continued in the same capacity in charge of the Richmond business. The First National Bank and the Richmond Savings Bank have had a specially successful career of service to the community since organization, growing to be the largest banking business not only in Richmond but in Contra Costa county.

Crary's Career Here

During the entire life of the bank, Mr. Charles J. Crary, president, has been the local manager in active charge except while away for a number of months on his recent long trip, during which time Mr. Larkin J. Younce vice-president and cashier ably demonstrated his ability to carry on the management of the combined institutions. In the merger, Mr. Crary will become vice-president of the Mercantile Trust Co., and manager of the Richmond branch, and Mr. Younce, vice-president and assistant manager.

The banks number among their directors some of the most representative men of the City of Richmond, all of whom live in Richmond or Contra Costa County or are directly interested in business here.

Trust Company Strong

The Mercantile Trust Company of San Francisco is one of the strongest western banking institutions. It includes the old Savings Union & Trust Company, organized in 1862, and for many years a leading savings institution of San Francisco. At its head is Mr. John S. Drum of San Francisca, one of San Francisco's most able bankers, recently president of the American Bankers Association and interested in many banking and business enterprises of high merit, among them being Columbia Steel mill at Pittsburg, recently greatly enlarged. Others prominent in the Mercantile Trust Company are: John D. McKee, chairman of the board; C. T. Crocker, M. H. Esberg, Henry T. Scott, H. B. Hunter, vice-president; Alexander Hamilton, C. O. G. Miller.

Berkeley Precedent

The First National Bank of Richmond and the Richmond Savings Bank are following the line of the First National Bank of Berkeley, F. L. Naylor, president, which recently merged with the Mercantile Trust Company. Richmond can consider itself fortunate to have such a strong institution locate in its midst. It is an indicatoin of the growth and stability of the community. In turn the Mercantile Trust Company is fortunate to be able to serve the people of Richmond so ably through the officers and directors of the First National Bank and the Richmond Savings Bank.

Romance and Treasure

The Cross-Cut

By
Courtney Ryley Cooper

Many people who have followed the mining history of Colorado will recognize the Silver Queen and the Blue Poppy mines, described in Mr. Cooper's story. Everyone will find it a tale of most absorbing interest in its unusual combination of love, mystery, humor and the excitement of hunting the earth's hidden wealth.

The hopes, the disappointments and the realizations; the elements of calculation and of blind luck which enter into the most fascinating of human pursuits are fascinatingly told by one who knows his subject thoroughly, and, in addition, is one of America's most accomplished story writers. Readers will take a personal interest in the struggles of the hero and his pal, and feel a personal gratification in the good fortune which finally rewarded their perseverance and grit.

It Starts Tomorrow.

Courtney Ryley Cooper

One who was born in Kansas City, Mo., and spent much of his young life farther west; who ran away from school and became a clown in a circus; who later graduated into a special writer on the Kansas City Star, New York World, Denver Post and Chicago Tribune, and who has written over 200 stories for magazines, would seem to know something of life and how to interpret it in an interesting manner. You will think so if you read his excellent mining romance entitled "The Cross-Cut," which is soon to start in this paper.

Let's not dismiss his experiences with the above brief summary. After clowning, Mr. Cooper became the press representative of the Sells-Floto circus and later with Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill). In 1918 he became a private in the U. S. Marines, and afterwards was commissioned second lieutenant and sent to France to collate historical matter concerning the Marines. He is the author of "Shoe-String Charlie," "The Eagle's Eye," "Dear Folks at Home" and other stories, as well as several successful plays. With Mrs. W. F. Cody, he wrote "Memories of Buffalo Bill." Also writes under the pen names of Barney Furey, William O. Grenolds and Jack Harlow. Don't fail to read "The Cross-Cut."

HIGH SCHOOL BOY IS HURT

Clifford L. Johnson, High school student, and son of J. A. Johnson, president of the Princeton Knitting Mills, residing at 2401 Adrade Boulevard, met with a painful and distressing accident yesterday afternoon which will incapacitate him for about one month.

While attempting to crank an automobile belonging to E. Shelton, grocer, at 23rd and Dunne street, there was a sudden back fire and the spinning crank struck the lad just above the right wrist.

An X-ray examination disclosed a complete dislocation of the bones of the forearm where they join the wrist. These were put back into place under an anaesthetic, and a plaster of Paris cast applied. Dr. Spalding was in attendance.

12,600 Is Co. Vote Estimate

Martinez, Aug. 4.—A seventy per cent vote is expected at the Primary election on the 20th of this month by County Clerk J. H. Wells who is preparing for the election.

Although a complete report of the registration in the county has not been made as yet, Wells believes that the number will exceed 18,000. There are six county offices to be contested at the primaries with fights for township posts in eleven communities.

If County Clerk Wells' figures are correct, the vote to be cast on August 29th will reach 12,600.

And if the same ratio prevails in Richmond where 6,701 voters have registered, there will be polled here 4,690 votes.

INDIANA HEAT AND CALIFORNIA

C. W. Cook, member of the clerical force of the Southern Pacific Railway, accompanied by his wife, son and daughter, returned Thursday from a five weeks' trip which took them into many parts of the East, Middle West and Canada.

The Cooks' objective was Indiana, which is their native state.

The great wheat lands of Manitoba and Saskatchewan, the alfalfa fields of Utah, the corn belt of Iowa, Missouri and Kansas all appealed to the Cooks, but listen to this:

"Here in Richmond we are wearing overcoats and enjoying fires in the home, but back in the East we wore next to nothing, and almost melted with the temperature 127 degrees in the shade, and no shade to be found," said Cook.

They returned by way of Chicago, Oklahoma and Denver.

Cubs Here Meet Silent Swatters In Sunday Match

With the Richmond ball club playing the Sperry Flours at Stockton tomorrow, the local Sunday baseball attraction will be the contest between the Richmond Cubs and the Oakland Silent Athletic Club. The game will be played on the First street grounds and will start at 2:30 p. m.

The members of the Oakland outfit are deaf and dumb, all of them being graduates of the Berkeley Foothill school, which at one time turned out some wonderful teams. The Silent boys were defeated by the Cubs recently but were handicapped by the absence of their regular pitcher. "Dummy" Land, former Foothill hurler, is reported to be with the Silent Club again and may be on the mound against the local boys tomorrow.

There will be no admission charged to witness the contest.

Richmond Temple, P. S. To Attend Supreme Council

A large number of members of Richmond Temple No. 86, Pythian Sisters, plan to attend the membership sessions of the Supreme Council of Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters to be held next week in San Francisco. District Deputy Rose Parker will entertain the members of Richmond Temple this evening at her home on Second street.

GOLD MINING IN STATE NOW IS OPTIMISTIC

Thomas K. Cole, expert mining statistician, says:

Steady improvement in the mining situation has been the significant feature of the first half of the current year.

Scouts representing the big Eastern financial interests have been busy curry-combing the mining districts of California and Nevada, in search of promising gold prospects for intensive development by modern methods. In not a few instances they have found what they were in search of.

The Mother Lode, for example, is attracting more attention now than for years. William J. Loring has recently tied up under options and by purchase, more than seven miles of this formation, and other representatives of large capital are interesting themselves at other points. Everything points to full-volumed revival of mining activities.

The only adverse feature—the lone fly in the ointment—is the high cost of power. The California Metals Association is on record as declaring that the power companies are very slow in getting power rates back to the normal., Mining men feel that the charges for power in the several mining centers are today 25 per cent too high.

FIRST READING OF EL CERRITO ORDINANCES

Mayor Phil Lee presided at a meeting of the trustees of the city of El Cerrito last night at which all members were present.

Tax Collector McKinnon reported that he had received $271.90 for soft drink permits for the present quarter to date.

Treasurer Frank Walsh reported a balance on hand on August 1 of $5,887.61.

First reading of the ordinance making vagrancy and disturbing the peace misdemeanors punishable by fine and imprisonment. For vagrancy the maximum is $500 fine and six months in jail and for disturbing the peace $200 fine and 90 days in jail.

An order was entered to employ J. O. Ford of Richmond to audit the books for the last fiscal year.

No protests were entered against the paving of Clayton street, but bids will not be received until further notice as no resolution had been prepared to meet the situation.

A motion carried that the fire chief, elected by the volunteer fire department, will in the future not be effective until it shall have been ratified by the trustees.

The trustees then ratified the election of A. Gatto as fire chief.

JULY BUILDINGS TOTAL $97,260

According to the monthly report of City Building Inspector Lambert Wierda which will be filed with the city council next Monday night, building permits for the month of July totalled $97,260. The general contracts on the Winters building are included in the report. The permits are classified as follows: Two business buildings, $65,250; nine dwelling, $28,500; eight old work, $2,810; seven miscellanous, $700.

Water And Power Act Discussion Under Way

The water and power bill, the battle over which is shaping into the greatest election contest the State has known for many years, will be debated by giants on both sides of the proposition before the public in Richmond.

Committee in Charge

A committee consisting of Judge D. J. Hall, chairman; George N. Rooker Larkin Younce, Fred LaMoine and H. A. Johnston has charge of the meeting. It will be a mass meeting to which all citizens are invited and will be held in the Lincoln Auditorium toward the latter part of the month on a date yet to be fixed, that the speakers who are to come here may be accommodated.

Notable Speakers

Grover O'Connor, one of the foremost orators of the San Francisco bar, will speak in opposition to the measure. Mayor Louis Bartlett of Berkeley, whose familiarity with the proponent's side of the proposed legislation has put him at the forefront among its opponents will probably represent that end or it may be that Rudolph Spreckels will be the speaker for the measure.

The mass meeting is the result of a jazzy occurrence at the last meeting of the Richmond Industrial Commission, when Judge Hall arose to make a few casual remarks in favor of the act. George Rooker came back with a fiery denunciation of it, and gave several printed reasons why it would mean ruin to the State if adopted. Jesse Hitchcok, Judge Roth and others sprang into the melee, and the proposed measure was lauded and berated in turn.

Citizens' Mass Meeting

President George Wall suggested that a committee arrange a mass meeting at which the public of Richmond could hear logically presented arguments for and against the measure, which is of such momentous importance that the people should acquire as complete a knowledge of it as possible. This was agreeable to all the contestants in the ring and the meeting and joint debate is the result

Chairman Hall and the rest of the committee urge citizens to attend the meeting. They also ask the Rotary Club, Lions Club, the women's clubs of the city and all other organizations to make announcements at their gatherings regarding this mass meeting for the water power bill debate.

AFTER 30 YEARS HYMEN PALLS

Martinez, August 4.—After he had been married thirty years, D. L. Robinson deserted his wife Emma M. Robinson of Richmond according to suit for divorce instituted today by the latter. The couple were married in Arizona in 1886. Mrs. Robinson claims her husband left her in 1916. She asks custody of a daughter, 15 years old. Pierce and Carlson are attorneys for plaintiff.

WOODCRAFTS NEIGHBORS COOKED FOOD SALE

A cooked food sale will be held by the Neighbors of Woodcraft today at Schrader's store at Seventh and Macdonald. The committee in charge promises a tempting stock of cooked food for the Sunday dinner.

WISCONSIN MEN HERE TO INVEST MONEY

Grant S. Minor, one of the wealthiest men of Wisconsin, and his son, Grant S. Minor, Jr., are to spend many thousands of dollars erecting homes in Richmond.

The Minors who have formed a company with themselves as the main stockholders, have located here and purchased numbers of lots on properties of the Richmond Company, of which Mrs. Tilley C. Brown is president and principal owner. They have already begun erection of homes in the eastern section of the city within the Twenty-third street area.

Publicity Interested Minors

The Minors were brough to Richmond through the advertising campaign of the Richmond Company in Chicago. Noting the statements about Richmond, they called on R. D. Heldrege, formerly of Staats & Co., Mrs. Brown's Chicago manager and now local vice-president of the company, and made inquiry. Impressed with the facts given them about Richmond, they came here to investigate and here they have stayed and opened up their resources for investment and building.

Richmond Not Over Advertised

The Wisconsin men say that Richmand is even a better proposition than the Richmond Company advertising and Holdrege's statements had led them to believe. That it will be a big city they decided to their own satisfaction after one good trip about it they say. More such advertising done in the East would result in investment of much new wealth here, in their opinion.

The auditor of the Byllsby Corporation of Chicago was here about a month ago on his regular annual visit to the company's subsidiaries out here, one of which is the Western States Gas and Electric Company of Richmond.

"The people of this city certainly are up and going," the auditor said to Manager George Rooker. "It takes one's breath away to see the speed they display."

Rooker knew the people here are progressive and always on the bit but he was puzzled by the auditor's special reference to it, and asked about it.

"Why, I'm talking about that advertising you put on in Chicago," he said. "It made the people in a dozen states wake up and turn their attention to Richmond, and it'll result in a lot of them coming out here to take a look. I know you have a town that is up and going, but for a city of this size to put on such a campaign as that is unusual."

Rooker discovered that the auditor referred to the Richmond Company Chicago campaign. Its effectiveness was shown by the way it impressed him. It will result in much permanent good for this city.

RUSSIAN RELIEF

The American Central Committee for Russian Relief, Inc., has applied for permission to dissolve. This committtee was controlled by men of high character, like Charles W. Eliot, President Emeritus of Harvard; H. H. Kohlsaat, Otto H. Kahn and Montgomery Schuyler. The petition frankly states that the American public will no longer respond cheerfully to an appeal for funds. Money cannot be raised. No wonder. The American public has been solicited to death, almost; and, besides, in the case of Russian relief the Hoover organization is doing all that can be done, and, with semi-official aid both in this country and Russia, is doing it far more efficiently than any other group.

Russia is a country of vast resources, as are other sections of Europe like Hungary, the Balkans and the former German empire. After the war the peasantry of these countries, abetted by impractical "intellectuals," manifested a disposition to lay back and be fed with a spoon by Uncle Sam. They mistook political liberty for industrial liberty—the right to remain idle—and that is why there is still suffering in Continental Europe. If Russia had set to work immediately after the armistice she would today be exporting food instead of receiving alms. Thanks to the systematic relief of the A. R. A., she will be self-supporting with the advent of next harvest. And she should be notified that she must stay self-supporting.

NOT A CRIME

If recent court proceedings in Brooklyn are correctly reported, there seems to be little doubt that a woman was convicted and sentenced to three years for the offense of smoking cigarettes and wearing knickers while in company with a young man and a girl of fifteen. The convicted woman had been married; was, it must be assumed, wordly wise, and, no matter how unconventional her conduct, she is a citizen and entitled to all the protection, immunity and privileges guaranteed by law. This is the view that the county judge took, for he reversed the opinion of the night court and set the woman free.

The girl was arrested in her own father's bungalow at Bergen Beach, where she was "roughing it," with the other girl and a youth of nineteen. All wore knickerbockers; all smoked cigarettes.

We cannot approve of their conduct. They defied convention at least the girls did, by entertaining the young man, and the owner, no doubt, had a right to be indignant, although one of the trespassers was his daughter.

But to disapprove of such conduct is one thing, to use the courts to deprive a citizen of her liberty for a term of years is another. We do not seem to have the right understanding of liberty in late years. We need a Gladstone to point the way. While citizens, regardless of social status owe allegiance to the state, the state has certain duties to perform to the citizen. It was once demanded of Gladstone, while he was premier, that he drive women of the underworld off the street.

"I cannot do so," was the reply, "it would be an interference with the rights of the subject."

And no one ever accused Gladstone of having sympathy with vice in any form.

AUGUSTUS THOMAS

The selection of Augustus Thomas as executive head of the Producing Manager's Association is an event of first importance in the history of the American stage. His fitness for the important post will not be questioned by any one. More than any other individual in the country, perhaps, he combines all the qualities essential to a proper understanding of the necessities of the theatrical world.

August Thomas is versatile. Blessed with a fruitful imagination and a constructive faculty rarely surpassed, endowed with wisdom and with wit, gifted with the saving grace of common sense, he has both the artist's and the manager's point of view, and in addition the outlook of the author.

It is doubtful if any other man in the country is as "many-sided," if we may be permitted to use a trite expression, as Augustus Thomas. He has been a publicist since his early youth; a student of men and governments; he has been closely associated with the stage all his life; he has a newspaper training, he has been an actor and a good one, he is an artist with pen and brush of no mean ability, and as a playwright he is correctly referred to as the dean of the American craft.

Those who read "The Print of My Remembrance," recently appearing in the Saturday Evening Post, must have been impresed with the complete life he has led, and the success with which he has wrought; and those permitted a greater intimacy, those who know him personally and have known him since his work first began to attract attention, are impressed by the fact that his head is not turned, that he still regards himself as one of the people.

The selection of Mr. Thomas refutes completely the oft-repeated and unjustifiable charge that dramatic art has been corrupted by commercialism within the last generation.

THE ST. LOUIS BROWNS

Dr. Frank Crane ought to find material in the St. Louis Browns for one of his "essays." The situation with the American League leaders just now is cut and fitted for that writer's peculiar gift of platitudinizing.

It is the Jack the Giant Killer motive all over again, the story found in David and Goliath, the underlying theme of Cinderella—in short, the poor and weak triumphing over the high and haughty to the average reader's taste.

St. Louis attained the top in July, and proceeded to lose it by a narrow margin when the Yankees once more assumed the head of the percentage column. Then, with five of their best men incapacitated, the Browns went in and licked the expensive opposition, and once more roosted on the summit.

Compared with the Yankees, the Browns are a cheap outfit. The fortune paid for Ruth, and other fortunes he and his team-mates draw as yearly salaries, would perhaps buy three or four, and hire six or eight teams like the Browns. Yet humble merit wins. Jack beans the Giant, and the lowly scullery maid weds the prince!

THE "DIVORCE RING"

A cablegram announces that divorced persons in Paris are wearing special "divorce rings," a circlet made of a broken Cupid's arrow. It is said to be a very popular ornament with certain persons whose marital affairs have ben adjusted by a decree. The ring may be popular with "certain persons" for it takes all kinds of people to make a world, but it will not become popular with normal folk, no matter how unfortunate some of this class may have been in their matrimonial adventures.

Divorce is wisely provided for in most civilized communities. There are circumstances under which it would be worse than criminal to force a man and woman to live together, but divorce is the confession of a tragic mistake; it never is a thing to be proud of and it is never the fitting subject for a joke.

The marriage ring signifies much. It is a bond of union, a symbol of love. The divorce ring in any circumstances would be a parody, and self-respecting divorcees will have none of it.

Comb Sage Tea In Faded or Gray Hair

Look young! Common garden Sage and Sulphur darkens so naturally nobody can tell Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Advt.

Salts is fine for Kidneys, Quit Meat

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back hurts or Bladder bothers —Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders, come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv

Run Down?

Kidney and bladder troubles are not limited to men. Housework, or work in office or factory, causes women to suffer from weak, overworked or diseased kidneys. The symptoms are—puffiness under the eyes, sallow skin, constant tired feeling, lack of ambition, nervous condition, backache, rheumatic pains, sore muscles, stiff joints.

Foley Kidney Pills get right at the cause of suffering and misery, regulate the kidneys and bladder and restore the diseased organs to sound and healthy condition.

Mrs. Wm. Fischer, 2009 Woodbourne Ave., Louisville, Ky., writes: "I am just getting along fine. I am taking Foley Kidney Pills every other night. You should have seen me before I started I was yellow as gold, now my eyes and skin are all cleared up. My kidneys do not bother me at night any more. If it will help some other poor soul who is suffering you may use my name wherever your medicine is advertised."

CANADA, A LAND OF DIVERSIFIED SUMMER PLEASURES

CLOSE FINISH ON LAKE ONTARIO AT KINGSTON

ON THE BOW RIVER AT BANFF

THROUGH RYAN CHANNEL NEAR POINT AU BARIL, ONTARIO

DRIVING IN YOHO PARK IN THE CANADIAN ROCKIES

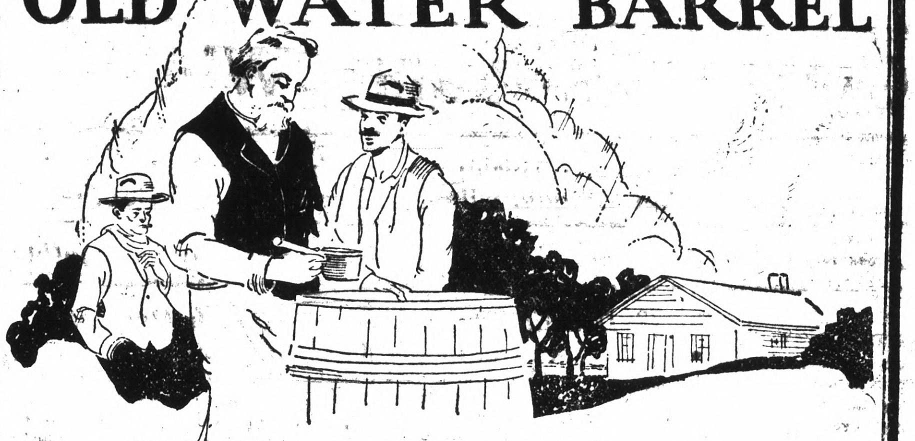
As a land of outdoor sports, both summer and winter, Canada enjoys a world-wide reputation. Not every one who is looking for a summer retreat, however, wants to indulge in exercise or sports. There are hosts of elderly persons and semi-invalids who wish only rest, good food and pleasant surroundings. For such Canada offers a continent-wide selection of varied resorts.

Along the north shore of Lake Ontario there are many quiet little towns that cater to summer guests, such as Belleville and Cobourg. They offer delightful climate, the summer heat being tempered by cool lake breezes; good hotels with spacious verandahs and wooded lawns; fine roads for motoring; pleasant parks where the gentle game of croquet may be played or the more strenuous bowling on the green; unrivalled beaches present animated, happy scenes during bathing hours while sailing and motor boat races are daily events to be enjoyed from the beach parks.

The Ontario lake groups, Kawartha, Muskoka and Simcoe, are surrounded by comfortable summer hotels. Trips by motor launch or lake steamers afford charming rides through lovely scenery with glimpses of neighboring resorts. This section is particularly popular with sufferers of hay fever, as that affliction disappears in the dry, ozone-laden air of Ontario's highlands. The Laurentian Mountains of Quebec contain many retreats where rest and comforts are to be found along with charming scenery, such as Highland Farm and Pinehurst Inn at Val Morin, a short ride from Montreal.

When visiting the Canadian Rockies it is not necessary to climb mountains and indulge in strenuous exercise. Exquisite views are to be enjoyed from the verandahs of mountain hotels, while at Banff and Lake Louise one may command the best of service and cuisine. Comfortable motor coaches and automobiles are at hand for visiting surrounding points of interest. Emerald Lake Chalet and Lake Windermere Camp, the latter in Columbia Valley, allow a taste of life off the beaten road without any hardships whatever. A ten-mile drive through fascinating scenery carries the tourist from his train to Emerald Lake, with its cozy chalet where carriages are available for further excursions.

A FAR CRY FROM THE OLD WATER BARREL



Please
REMEMBER:

THE COMPANY maintains 42,000 acres of watershed lands under constant patrol in order that water may be unpolluted at its source.

It maintains immense storage reservoirs where the water clarifies and purifies itself to a certain extent.

The water is then aerated, filtered, sterilized and analyzed.

It is constantly under the microscopic scrutiny of our own chemists, while city, state and government bacteriologists analyze it at frequent intervals.

MANY CALIFORNIANS remember the days of the old water barrel. It was the dust-catching, unsanitary container in which water was hauled for miles—perhaps from some sluggish river or creek.

How flat, tepid and "dead," water became after standing for days in these barrels! Pioneers suffered much sickness due to their inability to secure, or store a pure, wholesome product.

How different today when people need only to turn a faucet in order to secure all the pure water they wish.

Today, the East Bay Water Company takes water that would have been considered fine by the pioneers, puts it through aerators, sand and gravel filters, sterilizes and analyzes it to be certain of its purity and wholesomeness.

The water of this company is safe water.
Use it with confidence and tell the visitor to do the same.

Stomach As Heavy As Lead

March 16, 1922.

I suffered from dysentery and difficult breathing, my bowels moving constantly with bloody discharges. I also had murning indigestion and my stomach felt as though there was a piece of lead in it. Failing to get relief elsewhere, I took the herbs of the FONG WAN HERB CO. for two weeks. My former complaints have left me entirely and I am now enjoying good health.

Suffered Unnecessarily
Oakland, Feb. 3, 1922.

At intervals I suffered severe pleurisy pains which began in the right side of my chest and ran around under my arm into my shoulder blade. It was both painful and difficult to raise my arm. I had taken various sorts of treatment for the trouble, but had found no relief.

Now, after seven weeks of the FONG WAN HERBS, the pain in my chest is entirely gone and I feel quite well. I bought the herbs in packages and cooked them at home.

"The Boob," Simple Love Story Tonight At Tent Theater

"The Boob," a simple story of a boy and girl, with the underlying theme which never grows old and which improves with age and re-telling, that of Love, will be the four-act comedy drama which is offered Saturday night patrons of Jenning's tent theater.

"The way of a man with a maid," gave Solomon food for thought 2,000 years ago. It throubled Herod and cost John the Baptist his head. It shows Mary Anthony laughing at sober-minded Fulvia, defying the Caesars and eating figs from the olive hands of the serpent of the Nile. It shows the Little Corporal leaving Josephine.

"The way of a man with a maid'" is brought up-to-date in "The Boob."

Last night "The Girl of the Golden West," popular California drama played to a large audience.

Vacation Surprise Planned For Mother

"Where have you been, Elsie. We never will get started on our camping trip in the morning if you don't stay home and help me get things together. Your father has scattered the things he wants to take all over the house and I want you to help me get them together."

"Oh, mother, I have a surprise for you. But you'll have to go downtown with me."

"What's this, when I am so busy? Now you get busy and frost that cake on the table. Look at the big ham I have boiled with all the cloves in it. We are going to have food to last on the first part of our trip, anyway."

"Now, mother, I'll frost the cake while you change your clothes and get ready to come with me."

"I won't budge a step until you tell me what you're up to."

"Oh, mother. you're dreadful. Well, then, I'll tell you. Dad and I decided you didn't have the proper clothes for a camping trip, so we are going to buy you the niftiest brown tweed suit and a soft brown hat. You'll look great and it will be so comfortable. Dad and I have our old camping suits and we decided you deserved a real outfit, so we went out to Cherry's Semi-Annual Clearance Sale and picked out several and made arrangements for monthly payments. All you have to do is get fitted."

Cherry's store for women is at 515 13th street; the mens' store, 528 13th street.—Advertisement.

"The Great Alone" Is Great Film At Macdonald Theatre

Picture-goers will have no regrets in seeing Monroe Salisbury in "The Great Alone." The confirmed fan who has seen this virile star in "The Barbarian," "The Man in the Moonlight," "The Sleeping Lion," or other of his pictures will find even greater delight in this latest of his films, than the occasional playgoers. As "Silent" Duval in "The Great Alone," Salisbury reaches the apex of his screen career, giving an interpretation of the character of the half-breed which is a polished bit of acting.

We must pause to mention a name new to us, but which we believe will be one to conjure with—Maria Draga, Salisbury's leading lady in this production. We are told she has not yet celebrated her sixteenth birthday. a fact which is easy to believe. But her emotional powers are so great and her artistry so perfect that it might well be the envy of more mature actresses; and we predict stardom for her.

"The Great Alone" tells the story of a half-breed who is sent to college by a friend of his father and later by the same guardian entrusted with a difficult secret mission in Alaska. At college his prowess became the envy of team mates who sought to bring him into ridicule. A girl wins his undying gratitude by championing him and berating his tormentors. In the fur country he has opportunity to repay that debt at a double peril of his life; and a girl who loves him seeks to restrain him. How he fulfills his duty to his conscience and his employers and wipes out his debt to the girl provides the thrilling—for it is thrilling—action of the picture.

Lura Anson, Walter Law, George Waggoner and Rchard Cummings are others in the cast deserving of mention for excellent performances.

"The Great Alone" was produced by West Coast Films Corporation under supervision of Isadore Bernstein. The story was written and the production directed by Jacques Jaccard. The camera work was done by Frank B. Good, A. S. C.

Charlie Chaplin in "The Cure," gives comedy-lovers a sure outlet for their mirth. A Prisma completes the bill Frank Mayo is coming Sunday.

'The Man From Home' Paramount Film At T & D Theatre

Picture fans have come to expect a bountiful measure in their screen entertainment these days, but the many excellent features incorporated in the Paramount production of "The Man From Home," which opened for its two days session at the Richmond theater last evening, must surely satisfy even the most exacting.

A famous novel by a nationally-known author, translated to the screen by one of the foremost producers of the day and interpreted by a cast of popular and talented players, surely that is a banquet of entertainment even in these days. Booth Tarkington wrote his novel of and in Italy which meant that if it was to be done justice in its transference to the screen it should be filmed in that country. This was done, George Fitzmaurice and an entire company being dispatched to the exact scenes of the author's writings especially for this purpose. And then the cast. James Kirkwood most capably heads it and he has the support of such favorites as Anna Q. Nilsson and Norman Kerry.

Summed up all in all, the "Man From Home" is capital entertainment, supplying in addition to a thrilling and dramatic story the additional pleasure of living for a little over an hour in the most magnificent section of Italy.

A story which effectually sets forth the romance of mining for precious metals.

The scene is laid in Colorado and the principal incidents have to do with attempts to steal a rich mine.

A tale of high order made more interesting by the author's intimate knowledge of mining-town life and his ability to inject a pleasing humor in the telling of it.

The plucky hero and the spirited heroine will make a strong appeal. With a superb plot, a realistic background and excellent characterization, "The Cross-Cut" will be liked by all lovers of virile American fiction.

This Splendid Story Will Be Printed as a Serial in The Record-Herald Starting Sunday.
